

GEORGE CREEK IRRIGATION CORPORATION

Yost, Utah

April 11, 1967

Mr. Frank Reese
State Engineer's Office
Salt Lake City, Utah

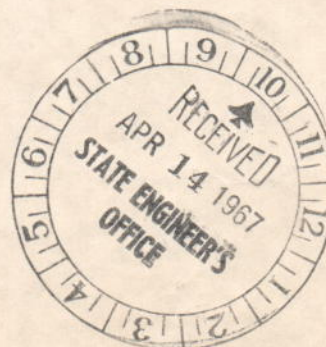

Dear Mr. Reese:

The directors of the George Creek Irrigation Corporation met April 2 and appointed Darwin Thompson as water commissioner for the 1967 irrigation season, pending your approval. The salary was set at $800.00.

Included in the meeting were directors of the George Creek Water User's Association--Wallace Spencer, Parley Montgomery, and Darwin Thompson.

Yours truly,

Rollo J. Kimber
Rollo J. Kimber, Sec.

Yost, Utah
April 2, 1967

Donald Norseth
Sir:

April 2, 1967 the directors of the George Creek Irrigation Corporation made and approved the following motion. That Darwin Thompson be recommended for Water Commissioner of the George Creek Distribution System for the 1967 season. Salary to be eight hundred dollars ($800<sup>00</sup>).

The undersigned George Creek Water Users officers are in agreement with this proposal.

Chairman - Yale Montgomery
Vice Chairman - Wallace B. Spencer
Secretary - Darwin Thompson

Discussed Budget with Wally Spencer and added
$25.00 for total budget of $825-
and assessment of $825-

PCN.